

Winter's Come and Gone - A Lullaby

“Winter’s Come and Gone” is a contemporary American folk song that spans time and generations. Follow the verses beyond the rain and snow, sing your sorrows to the birds, and receive their reassurance that, “Winter’s come and gone, a little bird told me so.” Our innovative design utilizes a regionally sensitive plant palette, permeable paving, recycled glass, and living walls. It embraces the dream of spring from the windowsill of a child’s playhouse through the timber-framed arbor and themed gates. It would be a welcome sight anywhere in the Pacific Northwest.

Created by:

Washington State Nursery & Landscape Association

800.672.7711 | info@wsnla.org | www.wsnla.org

Oly Mountian Fish Compost

206.940.8807 | katie@olyfish.com | www.olyfish.com

Designed by:

Gregory Smaus, CPH
Native Root Designs

206.227.4458 | gregory@nativerootdesigns.com
www.nativerootdesigns.com

Use your smartphone to scan this image to see the plant list, art and sculpture from the garden that is for sale, designer interviews and much more!

www.wsnla.org/WSNLADisplayGarden.htm

Our Garden Contributors

Plants:

Vibrant Plants, T&L Nursery
Dragonfly Farms Nursery
Valley Nursery, Skagit Gardens
Van Klaveren's Nursery
Urban Forest Nursery
Northwest Nurseries
City People's Garden Store

Artists:

Blue Collar Artworks
Seattle Mosaic Arts
Home and Garden Art (booth 202)

Artisans/Craftsmen:

M&M Irrigation
Mukilteo Cedar Products
Plum Projects, LLC

Special Thanks:

Marenakos Rock Center
Windmill Gardens
Sawdust Supply Company
Pacific Stone Company
Sunnyside Nursery
Bedrock Industries
Kirsten Lints, CPH
Megan Pulkkinen, CPH
Lake Washington Technical College horticulture students
The Board & staff of WSNLA and Northwest Flower & Garden Show.

www.wsnla.org/WSNLADisplayGarden.htm